

Joni Mitchell leads winter pop concerts

SINGER-song writer Joni Mitchell leads off Triangle Productions' winter lineup of rock, pop, and jazz concerts Jan. 23 with a show at 8 p. m. at the Auditorium Theater. The Van Morrison concert announced for Jan. 19 at the Auditorium has been canceled.

Other new bookings include Miles Davis, scheduled for a show at the Auditorium Feb.

1 at 8:30; Barry White, Arie Crown, Feb. 9 at 7:30; the Four Seasons, Arie Crown, Feb. 16 at 8:30; and Deep Purple and Savoy Brown, who share the bill at the International Amphitheater Feb. 24 and 25. Both shows begin at 8.

STEVE Stills has been booked for a performance at the Auditorium March 8 at 8:30. Other March concerts feature the Lettermen, appearing at Arie Crown March 15 at 8:30; the Bee Gees, Auditorium, March 15 at 8:30; and Two Generations of Brubeck, Auditorium, March 16 at 8:30. Seals and Crofts are in concert at Arie Crown March 16 at 7 and 10:30 and March 17 at 3:30 and 7. Fleetwood Mac comes to the Auditorium April 5 at 8:30.