Paulson Is Mr. Science

Pat Paulsen assumes the guise of "Mr. Science" to deliver a discourse on weather, plays Lucifer in a sketch titled "Children's Letters to the Devil," conducts an interview with a rat, and otherwise looks at life through the wrong end of the telescope on "Pat Paulsen's Half a Comedy Hour" on the ABC Television Network, Thursday (7:30-8 p.m., EST).

Special guest on the program is Angie Dickinson, who plays a beautiful girl (type-casting) who has trouble with her television set, and calls Pat Paulsen, a troubled TV repairman.

Participating in other sketches on the program are Sherry Miles, George Spell, Pepe Brown, Vanetta Rogers, and Bob Einstein. Billy Sands is the Announcer, and Denny Vaughan is the Music Director. Mark Goode directs.

Writing on the show is supervised by Bob Einstein, whose fellow scribes are Steve Martin, Bob Arbogast, Paul Wayne, Michael Elias, Frank Shaw, Tom Kock, and Larry Markes.

A WOMAN OF QUALITY — Dr. Marcus Welby (series star Robert Young) shows his admiration of Senzra Carlotta Lopez De Guadalupe (guest star Delores Del Rio) and her courage in the face of impending death in "The Legacy," on the ABC Television Network's "Marcus Welby, M. D.," Tuesday at 10 p. m.

Paul Anka Visits Tom Jones

Tom Jones goes to rock 'n' roll in honor of Paul Anka when Paul visits "This Is Tom Jones" on Thursday (9-10 p.m., EST). Paul joins with Joni Mitchell and George Kirby on the ABC Television Network series.

Joni Mitchell, the talented composer and singer of folk-rock songs sings two of her own compositions, "Woodstock" and "Real Good For Free."

Funnyman George Kirby duos with Tom Jones in "Shake Rattle and Roll", and George does a monologue interwoven with the song, "When I Lay My Burden Down."

Tom's selections include "Let It Rock," "Green River," and "I Have Dreamed." And Tom joins his guest, Paul Anka, in "The Games People Play."

Paul has three big spots on the program including "Highway In The Wind," "Happy" and "Eleanor Rigby."

MUSICAL HIGHLIGHTS:
 "Highway in the Wind" — "Happy" — "Eleanor Rigby" by Paul Anka

"Let It Rock" — "Funny, Familiar, Forgotten Feeling" — "Funny (Not Much)" — "Green River" — "I Have Dreamed" — "Help Yourself" by Tom Jones

"When I Lay My Burden Down" by George Kirby

"The Games People Play" by Tom & Paul Anka

"Shake, Rattle and Roll" by Tom & George Kirby

"Real Good For Free" — "Woodstock" by Joni Mitchell

"This Is Tom Jones" is produced by Jon Schofield. The musical direction is by Johnnie Spence, and the Mike Sammes Dancers are featured.
