On August 14, 2008, BandHouse Gigs produced our fifth tribute show at The Music Center at Strathmore in Bethesda, MD. The concert showcased an incredible array of D.C. based talent paying tribute to the musical career of Joni Mitchell. Some of the artists had played together for decades, while others celebrated their first performances with each other. It was certainly our most musically challenging show.

The breadth and spectrum of Mitchell's catalog allowed for a surreal journey for the sold-out audience in the expansive, two thousand seat concert hall. As the listener, try to remember that these amazing performances were performed after only one short rehearsal. This album includes sixteen tunes, but there were another sixteen beautiful arrangements performed that night which time did not allow us to include. The BandHouse Gigs crew of volunteers dedicated months of planning to make this tribute the unique event that was captured.

Thank you to all who have attended our tributes. We appreciate your continued support of Bandhouse Gigs and your Washington area music community.

Directed & Produced by John Collins
Camera: John Collins, Suzanne Hickey, Miles Roberts and Terry McArdle
Edited By: Suzanne Hickey and John Collins
Recorded Live at The Music Center at Strathmore in Bethesda, MD
Live Performance Audio Engineer and Producer: John Jennings
Cover Art & Design: Dick Bangham, RipBang.com
