Fret numbers are counted from capo (e.g. 2 means 2nd fret from capo, actually fret 4).

In the tablature, notations in parentheses mean that the notes are sounded by virtue being part of the chord shape - they should not be plucked - e.g., in the first line of the Intro, the chord shape is actually a hammered barre on the 5th fret, but the only string that is plucked is 4th (D) string.

2nd verse:

Sisotowbell Lane
 Anywhere else now would seem very strange
 The seasons are changing
 Everyday in every way
 Sometimes it is spring
 Sometimes it is not anything
 A poet can sing
 Sometimes we try
 Yes we always try
 We have a rocking chair
 Some days we rock and stare
 At the woodlands and the grasslands and the badlands
 'cross the river
 Sometimes we do
 We like the view

3rd verse:

Sisotowbell Lane
 Go to the city you'll come back again
 To wade through the grain
 You always do
 Yes we always do
 Come back to the stars
 Sweet well water and pickling jars
 We'll lend you the car
 We always do
 Yes sometimes we do
 We have a rocking chair
 Someone is always there
 Rocking rhythms while they're waiting with the candle in the window
 Sometimes we do
 We wait for you
